A WICKET KEEPING MASTERCLASS WITH MARK EICHLER

Back by popular demand!

Long time East Torrens 'A' Grade Keeper, Mark Eichler, has again agreed to give some of his hard earned weekend to help put your young budding Wicket Keepers through their paces.

Having spent the last 17 years behind the stumps at 'A' Grade level, and along the way gaining a Level 2 accreditation in coaching, Mark knows a thing or two about what it takes to become a very good Keeper.

Mark's last class here at our Indoor centre went down a treat with many young keepers tapping into Mark's vast experience. Mark has kept to many talented bowlers over his time. From the early days right through to current Australian Cricketers, Kane Richardson and the super talented Leg Spinner, Adam Zampa.

Mark is a fantastic communicator, to both young and old, so anyone who comes along on the day will leave with a better understanding of what it takes to become a much better Wicket Keeper.

From the mental side of Keeping to the actual technique involved, it will all be covered.

They will take away the tools to be able to work on their Keeping at club training.

This is a group class and numbers will be limited.
